

We Can't ALL Be There

We can't all have the glory of individual conflict with the hun---of smashing his lines again, and again, and again; of chasing his legions across the Rhine and carrying the war home to those who started it.

But we can all share in that glory by giving our fighting men full, loyal, unstinted support; by seeing that they lack for nothing in men, guns, food, munitions, or the ships that are so vitally needed to transport them.

We can furnish the money our Government has asked for: the money that will send more fighting men to France; that will keep them supplied when they get there; the money that will hasten the achievement of VICTORY!

And we can render this vital aid without sacrifice to ourselves, by lending our money, at good interest, to the wealthiest, strongest nation in the world.
